

Joe Koehler Bio

Joe Koehler, CPA, is a Baltimore community leader, accountant, and longtime volunteer who has served on multiple nonprofit boards and in leadership roles, including as President and Treasurer of a Recreation & Parks Council and Treasurer and Public Safety Chair of the Canton Community Association. A Certified Public Accountant with a master's degree in accounting and business advisory services, Joe has worked in finance and accounting across healthcare, nonprofits, real estate, and other industries, with a focus on financial accountability, strong internal controls, and responsible stewardship of resources. He has been actively involved in Baltimore neighborhoods for many years, including public safety, youth recreation, community organizations, and efforts to strengthen local businesses and neighborhoods. As a member of the Democratic State Central Committee, Joe hopes to bring his experience in finance, government, and grassroots community service to strengthen the Democratic Party and help build a safer, more prosperous, and accountable Maryland while providing support to our local representatives and reversing the trend of declining voter turnout.
